The SeniorNet website offers information, educational opportunities and resources on topics of special interest to adults 50+ as well as interactive tools.

Following are the main sections of the site:

- Membership: Information related to membership in SeniorNet's nonprofit organization
- Education: Courses offered at Learning Centers and on our web site. Includes a list of contact information for all SeniorNet Learning Centers.
- Enrichment: Informational resources and activities in specific topic areas: Books & Culture, Health, Money, Recreations, Technology and Volunteering. Also includes a Marketplace with discounted products and special offers.
- About Us: Information about SeniorNet's mission and organization
- Help: Assistance in using the SeniorNet web site

NAVIGATE
Use the menu bar at the top of the page to go to the main sections of the SeniorNet website.

1. Place your mouse pointer on the menu title but don't click. A drop-down menu appears.
2. Click the top menu title to open the main page for the section.
    Or click one of the titles in the drop-down menu to open the main page for one of the sub sections.

ALTERNATIVE NAVIGATION

1. Scroll down the home page, or any regular SeniorNet page, and click Sitemap at the bottom of the page.
    A page listing SeniorNet's major categories and subsections appears.
2. Click the title of the page you want to open.

CHANGE FONT SIZE
Click the A+ or A- at the top right corner of the page to increase (A+) or decrease (A-) the text size. Click repeatedly to increase or decrease by increments.

Register

If you are not a SeniorNet member, click on the join button on the upper right hand column. When you join SeniorNet you will automatically be registered. As a final step in the registration process you will receive an email containing your username and a temporary password.   Your username and password will be used to give you access to private members-only areas of the SeniorNet website.

Login

1. Type your username and password in the Website Login box in the upper right hand column on the home page.

2. Click the LOGIN button.
