

October 3, 2008

Read the article at the Postbulletin.com about the courses offered at the SeniorNet Learning Center in Rochester MN. Students up to age 91 are learning to send and receive email and photos. Some are learning skills to re-enter the workforce; some are pursuing genealogy research or managing their finances using their computers.