

Congratulations to Frank Desko from the SeniorNet Learning at the David Posnack JCC in Davie, Florida recently received the President's Volunteer Service Award. This included a President's Service Award Pin, a letter from the White House and congratulations from IBM. Frank has been working with IBM as a retiree in their volunteer programs which included his SeniorNet activity. Part of the material he uses is from IBM. Every year Frank receives a grant from IBM which includes computers and printers. To receive the grant Frank includes a report of the volunteer hours.