

The utilization of data to manage day to day operations and to make strategic decisions demonstrates a high level of business insight.

The Longmont Team in Colorado does an excellent job in keeping a watchful eye on key indicators, and managing their Learning Centers' business.

These key indicators are relevant to the success to any Learning Center.

The Longmont team creates reports to share internally and with their Regional Consultant, (Phil Carnahan).

KUDOS to Sarah Jane Snyder, Gladys Marchant, and the entire team in Longmont.

Thanks for sharing reasons why your center is so successful !!!
