

In a C-Span television program, prize-winning author Wally Lamb, discussed the latest book he has edited, "I'll Fly Away," of works written by women at the York Correctional Facility.

Wally Lamb mentions SeniorNet's book discussions , volunteer Ginny Anderson, and our Prison Library Project which grew out of a SeniorNet online discussion of his first book with the women of York, "Couldn't Keep it to Myself."

Watch the video (click Watch in the upper right of the Book TV page. The mention of SeniorNet comes about 1 hour and 7 minutes into the 1 hour and 30 minute video.)