

The Channel 7 Everyday Hero Award Given to Sarah Jane Snyder

On the morning of Friday, November 16, 2007, Channel 7 News in Denver, Colorado awarded Sarah Jane Snyder, coordinator of the Longmont SeniorNet Learning Center, the 7 Every Day Hero Award. The Everyday Hero Award is given to Coloradans who initiate solutions, motivate others, represent or serve working families and work on a nonprofit basis.

Sarah Jane Snyder was recognized on behalf of her extensive work as the coordinator of a thriving SeniorNet Learning Center. Her fellow volunteers say that Sarah Jane keeps the SeniorNet Longmont Learning Center on track in a professional manner but at the same time making everyone feel at ease, including the volunteers and students. By going beyond the call of duty time and time again Sarah Jane is an excellent example of an Everyday Hero. Congratulations Sarah Jane on this outstanding recognition!

Read the article about the award on the Denver Channel 7 News site and click to view the video (a short advertisement plays first).